

Labeling functions from Pitt (1998: Experiment 2) partitioned by response type. Values next to each function are the number of participants of each response type, and are the values that appear in Table 1 of the paper. The bottom two graphs are from the replication discussed in the paper.

